Feldman named Florida's top city manager

City Manager Lee Feldman of Palm Bay has been named City Manager of the Year by Florida's League of Cities at a ceremony in Orlando.

Feldman was selected from five nominees.

Each year the Florida League of Cities recognizes city leaders for their judgment, initiative, integrity, innovation, professionalism, commitment to community, and involvement in professional associations.

"This is truly an honor," Feldman said after the Friday night event. "I am fortunate to lead a team of dedicated professionals that is committed to making a difference in the community it serves."

Feldman came to Palm Bay in 2002.

"I can't think of anyone more deserving of this award," said Palm Bay Mayor John Mazziotti. "He is dedicated to this city, and it shows."

Note: CB&A recruited Lee Feldman for the City of Palm Bay in the fall of 2002.
