POLICE CHIEF

Indian Creek Village (ICV) is currently seeking an individual who is intelligent, motivated, sophisticated, experienced, and proactive to fill the Chief of Police position. The ideal candidate must be dedicated to casting a vision surrounding the safety and protection of all residents and visitors.

Indian Creek Village (ICV) is an extremely exclusive, gated community located on a small island in the Intracoastal Waterway of Miami-Dade County, Florida. The Village is composed of 41 residential lots surrounding a golf course and a country club.

Safety and security are paramount to the residents and visitors of Indian Creek. One bridge, with a gatehouse, provides access to and from the Island, a marine patrol unit (as part of the ICV Police Department) as well as security cameras monitoring the activity surrounding the island 24/7/365.

Indian Creek Village Police Chief is a full-time position and operates under the general direction and supervision of the Village Manager. He/she will oversee nine (9) full-time police officers, three (3) part-time reserve officers, and four (4) full-time public safety aides.

The new Chief will be expected to review the Department to ensure it is operating efficiently and effectively as well as taking advantage of all appropriate modern technologies. He/she will possess extraordinary expertise in policing, counterterrorism and security as well as exceptionally high levels of sophistication, integrity, diplomacy and sensitivity. The best candidates will have a college degree. A master's degree and/or graduation from the FBI Academy at Quantico, VA, are significant pluses.

The Village is looking for just the right person and will pay the salary necessary to attract that person. Benefits are excellent. The Police Chief is not expected to reside on the island.
