

COUNTY MANAGER POSITION

You're invited to apply for an exciting senior executive opportunity.

OUR COMMUNITY AND LOCATION:

When it comes to community, few people define quality quite the same way. To some, it is beautiful neighborhoods and good schools. To others, it is business opportunities. To others, it is a place abundant with natural beauty. For Seminole County, it is all of the above.

Located in Central Florida, Seminole County encompasses 344 square miles and is situated between Orlando and Daytona Beach. The area has many wonderful nature and heritage offerings that complement world famous attractions. With an average temperature of 72 degrees and a beautiful suburban setting, Seminole County is "Florida's Natural Choice" to live, work, and play.

- Population 410,000 including seven cities: Altamonte Springs, Casselberry, Lake Mary, Longwood, Oviedo, Sanford, Winter Springs
- Suburban (with a rural area in the eastern portion of the County)
- Demographically, two thirds of the County is under 45 years old.
- Moody's Investor Service Rating of AA2
- Standard and Poors rating AA

OUR SCHOOLS:

- MONEY magazine identified Seminole County schools as one of the top 100 districts in the nation offering high quality education in a moderately priced community.
- NEWSWEEK recognized all Seminole County High Schools in the top 3% in the nation.
- Seminole County Public Schools was selected for the American School Board Journal's Magna Award recognizing districts across the country for outstanding programs that advance student learning and encourage community involvement.
- Since 1977, Seminole County SAT scores have exceeded state and national averages.

OUR ATMOSPHERE:

Our 23 public parks and more than 6,500 acres of preserves located along the lakeshores and scenic rivers offer a variety of recreational opportunities. Trails for bicyclers and pedestrians connect neighborhoods, schools, area shops and employment centers. The Wekiva River and the St. Johns River offer a look at natural Florida wildlife.
